

5 Reasons to be a member of the Zeiterion Performing Arts Center

Membership at the "Z" will put a smile on your face too! (Drew Pion)

Music, dance and drama are not just entertainment, but benefit the community at large. They are chicken soup for the soul. Bringing together diverse groups of people within the community, the arts serve to inspire, educate and foment discussion. They encourage creativity, enrich lives and galvanize society.

Can you imagine never enjoying your favorite band or musician in a live venue? Limiting that experience to compact disc or a digital medium? To solely watch the visual arts on ones couch or the cinema is to limit the rich experience of a play or theatrical performance. To restrict conversation to the small circle of friends as opposed to mingling among diverse groups across social strata is to miss out on an opportunity to expand ones global paradigm and expand perspective.

There is no better place to partake in these experiences than the Zeiterion Performing Arts Center. The iconic institution has been providing the greater New Bedford area and beyond with superlative programs, production and talent for almost a century!

Beginning April 2, 1923 with the stage show “Troubles of 1923,” starring George Jessel, the “Z” has never looked back – satisfying droves of satisfied denizens ever since. They have reeled folks in effortlessly. Their recipe for success is to attract world class acts, provide a platform and production par excellence, and offer it at an affordable rate that reflects the community’s economic ability.

You can of course, enjoy what the “Z” has to offer by stopping in periodically – but did you know that becoming a member has significant benefits and comes with a number of generous perks? So why should you become a member of the Zeiterion Performing Arts Center? Why should you dish out your hard-earned bucks?

1. Support for the Arts

Membership helps the “Z” bring world class performing artists to the stage, supports life-changing educational programs in the community, allows for free tickets to be distributed to people who would not otherwise have the opportunity to experience the performing arts, and contributes to the revitalization of our city.

New Bedford was characterized by its whaling, textile, and glass throughout its history. However it easily could have been called a city of art. Art in its many forms has always been an integral aspect of New Bedford. The “Z” has helped revitalize the downtown area with its presence. Supporting the “Z” is to support New Bedford, its community projects and help revitalize downtown.
