

58-year old man arrested after striking Massachusetts State Police cruiser, injuring trooper

"On Sunday evening, November 6th, our member, who was conducting a traffic stop on I-93 North in Randolph, was struck while inside his cruiser and injured.

He was transported to Boston Medical Center where he was treated for his injuries. The Association would like to recognize his continued commitment and service to the Commonwealth and take this moment to remind everyone to SLOW DOWN, DRIVE SOBER AND MOVE OVER.

The operator of the vehicle that struck our member is 58-year-old Thomas Feloney of Milton. He was arrested on scene. Feloney was not just operating on a suspended license but also under the influence.

He will face multiple charges including OUI Injury, Negligent Operation, and other violations of the auto laws." -State Police Association of Massachusetts.
