

Help Wanted: Assistant New Bedford Pet Detective

Do you love animals and want to contribute in a meaningful way to help lost local animals? The New Bedford Pet Detective is looking for 1-2 volunteer assistants. There is no compensation, just social media fame and the reward of seeing animals get reunited with their owners.

The New Bedford Pet Detective helps dozens of lost pets in the Greater New Bedford area get home to their owner each month. Due to the increase of lost pet cases, there is a need for volunteers.

Duties

- Monitor the New Bedford Pet Detective's Facebook Page (<https://www.facebook.com/nbpetedetective>) and repost lost pets on the page.
- Coordinate with local pet shelters as needed.
- Post status updates.
- Help develop other social media sites outside of

Facebook and possible website. Social media and website skills a plus!

Requirements

- Must have a smart phone – this is to monitor the page and for posting statuses on the page.
- Must be able to monitor the New Bedford Pet Detective's Facebook Page throughout the day.

To apply for the position e-mail info@newbedfordguide.com with some details on why you want to and why you would be good at being an assistant New Bedford Pet Detective.
