

Barnstable Police respond to teen being stabbed multiple times at the Cape Cod Mall

“On Monday, February 20, 2023, at approximately 4:00pm Barnstable Patrol Officers and Detectives responded to the Cape Cod Mall in Hyannis for a report of an individual who had been stabbed.

Upon arrival, Officers located a 17-year-old male who had sustained multiple stab wounds in his upper torso. The victim was transported by the Hyannis Fire Department to an awaiting MedFlight helicopter at the Barnstable Municipal Airport.

The MedFlight helicopter transported him to Hasbro Children’s Hospital in Providence Rhode Island for serious, but non-life threatening injuries.

This investigation remains active and ongoing at this time. This assault was the result of an argument between the victim and suspect and does not appear random.

If you have any information regarding this incident please contact the Barnstable Police Department at 508-778-3874.”
