Station One (Central New Bedford) has been experiencing several auto breaks in the past several weeks. In response directed and proactive patrols have been initiated.

This morning at approximately 01:41 a.m., Officer Abraham Nazario was conducting a directed patrol in the Buttonwood Park area. In the meantime, calls came in for suspicious males carrying a box were looking into cars on Elm Street near Rockdale Avenue area. Officer Nazario was nearby responded along with Officer Norman Duchesneau. As both officers converged on the two males from opposing directions on Elm Street the males fled. Officer Abraham Nazario, after a foot pursuit in the area of Brownell & Court Street, apprehended Tyler Trinidad.

Meanwhile Officer Daniel Sweeney, Officer Clint Medas and Officer Steven Alers were in route to assist. Officer Norman Duchesneau continued with his pursuit to the area Florence and Morgan Street. These officers with the direction and coordination of Officer Sweeney established a perimeter coordinating officers from both Station One and Station Three. While waiting for a K-9 officer, Officer A. Nazario heard some noises coming from 32 Florence Street. He notified Officer Duchesneau that he was going to investigate and subsequently discovered the second suspect (Tiquan Mello) hiding underneath a pool deck and placed him in police custody.

The suspects have been charged with two of the six car breaks that were reported this morning. The arresting officer Abraham Nazario is continuing the investigation. Several items were recovered and listed below.

Crime intervention success is greatly enhanced when the community alerts the police with timely and detailed information fortifying a true partnership which is augmented by a timely and professional police response. I am extremely proud of the officers at Station One and their professional response in this case and their dedication. We are very fortunate to have such a commendable cadre of officers devoted to our profession.
