

Fall River man shot at Holiday Inn Express early Saturday morning

At 1:46am, the Fall River Police responded to a report of a person who was shot at the Holiday Inn Express Fall River North at 360 Airport Road.

First responders arrived to find a man bleeding from two gunshot wounds. The unnamed individual was conscious at the time and the wounds did not appear to be life-threatening. He was rushed to Charlton Memorial Hospital where he is currently in stable condition.

This is a developing story. We will add more details as information is confirmed.

Video by The Fall River Experience: