Original article:

"So Avaleena has been gone since 9:00am yesterday. She's 14. I am her mother she's about 5'2" maybe 110-111lbs. She has braces and a black hoodie with the letters 'TK' on it in white. She has short brown hair right under her ears and brown eyes.

Last seen on Elm St. in the west end of New Bedford. Police couldn't do anything to bring her home.

I'm not getting into the details but I definitely need to know she's safe. I found out by checking her computer after she left, that she's been dating a sophomore from New Bedford High School. He's in ROTC.

If you have seen her please call the New Bedford Police Department or me at 508-985-3405 or email me at paulinoalicia9@gmail.com." -Alicia Pike.
