

Madeiran folkloric group to mesmerize audiences at New Bedford's 108th Feast of the Blessed Sacrament

"New Bedford, Massachusetts: The annual Feast of the Blessed Sacrament, the largest Portuguese festival in the United States, is thrilled to announce the highly anticipated performance of the acclaimed folkloric group from Madeira, Portugal, Grupo Folclórico da Casa do Povo da Camacha. Scheduled to take place from August 1st to August 4th, 2024, in New Bedford, Ma. This cultural extravaganza promises to captivate audiences with the rich traditions and vibrant performances of Madeiran folklore.

The 108th Feast of the Blessed Sacrament is proud to present the , Grupo Folclórico da Casa do Povo da Camacha renowned folkloric group from Madeira, Portugal, in an exclusive series of performances showcasing the island's authentic music, dance, and heritage.

When: August 1st – 4th, 2024

Where: The 108th Feast of the Blessed Sacrament New Bedford, Massachusetts

About the Folkloric Group:

Hailing from the picturesque island of Madeira, Portugal, this esteemed folkloric ensemble is renowned worldwide for its captivating performances that celebrate the island's cultural heritage. With a repertoire spanning centuries-old traditions, colorful costumes, and lively music, the group embodies the spirit of Madeiran folklore and transports audiences to the heart of this enchanting destination.

About the Feast of the Blessed Sacrament:

The Feast of the Blessed Sacrament, also known as the "Feast," is a cherished tradition that celebrates Portuguese culture, cuisine, and community. Established in 1915 by Portuguese-Madeiran immigrants in New Bedford, Massachusetts, the Feast has grown into one of the largest and most beloved festivals of its kind in the World, attracting thousands of visitors each year."