

Male pedestrian killed in hit and run on Weld Street in New Bedford

New Bedford police report that a male pedestrian was killed after being hit by a car just before 7:30am Monday morning at the corner of Pleasant and Weld streets. The driver fled the scene and police are treating the incident as a criminal hit-and-run.

No further information at this time. If you have details on the incident contact the NBPD at (508) 991-6300.