

Massachusetts Police arrest man in connection with alleged Amazon Delivery Vehicle carjacking

"Malden Police Department arrests a 42-year old Somerville man in connection with a carjacking of an Amazon Delivery vehicle.

The alleged incident took place yesterday afternoon in the area of Main Street & Bickford Road. The subject was apprehended after an extensive search conducted by patrol units including K9 'Mattis.'

Malden Police Department CID responded to assist with patrol investigation. We commend Lt. Luongo's shift – Platoon "C", and Patrol Sgt. Siegel who coordinated the response, including the subsequent search of area which resulted in suspect being taken into custody without incident #mpdprotecting" -Malden Police.
