

Massachusetts State Police want to clear up misunderstanding about wearing face masks

“Michael and Matthew of Oxford went outside to say hello to Trooper Joel Daoust. Under normal circumstances, Trooper Daoust will sometimes stop and talk to the boys while they are outside playing, and he is patrolling.

Today, while going by, Matthew was worried they’d get arrested if they didn’t have masks on. Obviously they won’t be, but it’s a great idea to keep everyone safe.

Stay safe and healthy!
