

Massachusetts police officer takes “Serve and Protect” to another level

“Don’t Squeeze the Charmin!

During the Day Tour today we received a call from one of our senior residents who was in need of toilet paper and without the ability to obtain it for herself.

It became a priority call and Off Jeff McCabe carried out the assignment swiftly by getting to a market.

In addition to the needed supplies, he provided her a morning hot coffee where they got to share some good conversation and some laughs.

Another example of the real police work that goes on daily at Everett PD??”-Everett MA Police.
