

Meet Linda Montille: From Haiti to owner of “L&M Beauty Salon” in New Bedford

Linda Montille’s journey is nothing short of inspiring! Originally from Haiti, Linda moved to America in 1996, with her family settling in New Bedford in 2000.

Her passion for hair started at a young age, braiding her three sisters’ hair, which led her to pursue a career in hairdressing. After attending New Bedford High School, she attended the LaBaron Hairdressing Academy, where she sharpened her skills and graduated within a year. With over 12 years of experience, Linda has built a loyal clientele with her exceptional talent and dedication to the craft.

In 2018, Linda expanded her horizons by earning an accounting degree from UMass Dartmouth. With a solid educational background and years of experience, she felt it was the right time to realize her dream of owning a salon. In September 2023, she discovered the perfect location on Brock Ave and immediately envisioned transforming it into an elegant and inviting beauty salon.

L&M Beauty Salon is not just a place for a haircut; it's an all-encompassing beauty experience.
