

Missing Afghan soldiers from Cape Cod caught trying to enter Canada

The missing Afghan National Army Soldiers. Maj. Jan Mohammad Arash, Capt. Mohammad Nasir Askarzada, and Capt. Noorullah Aminyar were found trying to cross into Canada at the Rainbow Bridge at Niagara Falls. The Rainbow Bridge spans from New York into Ontario, Canada .

The soldiers were reported missing Saturday night from Camp Edwards on the Joint Base Cape Cod. The men arrived Camp Edwards with other Afghan soldier on September 11th, 2014, for a training exercise.