

New Bedford man charged with OUI after hitting fire hydrant

At 3:49 pm on Sunday, New Bedford police officers discovered a vehicle idling and resting against a fire hydrant near 665 Union Street.

After investigating and talking to the driver, officers determined the driver was under the influence of alcohol. 30-year old Gerald LePage was arrested and is being charged with OUI Liquor.