

New Bedford motor home, exposed garage, catch fire from propane gas grill

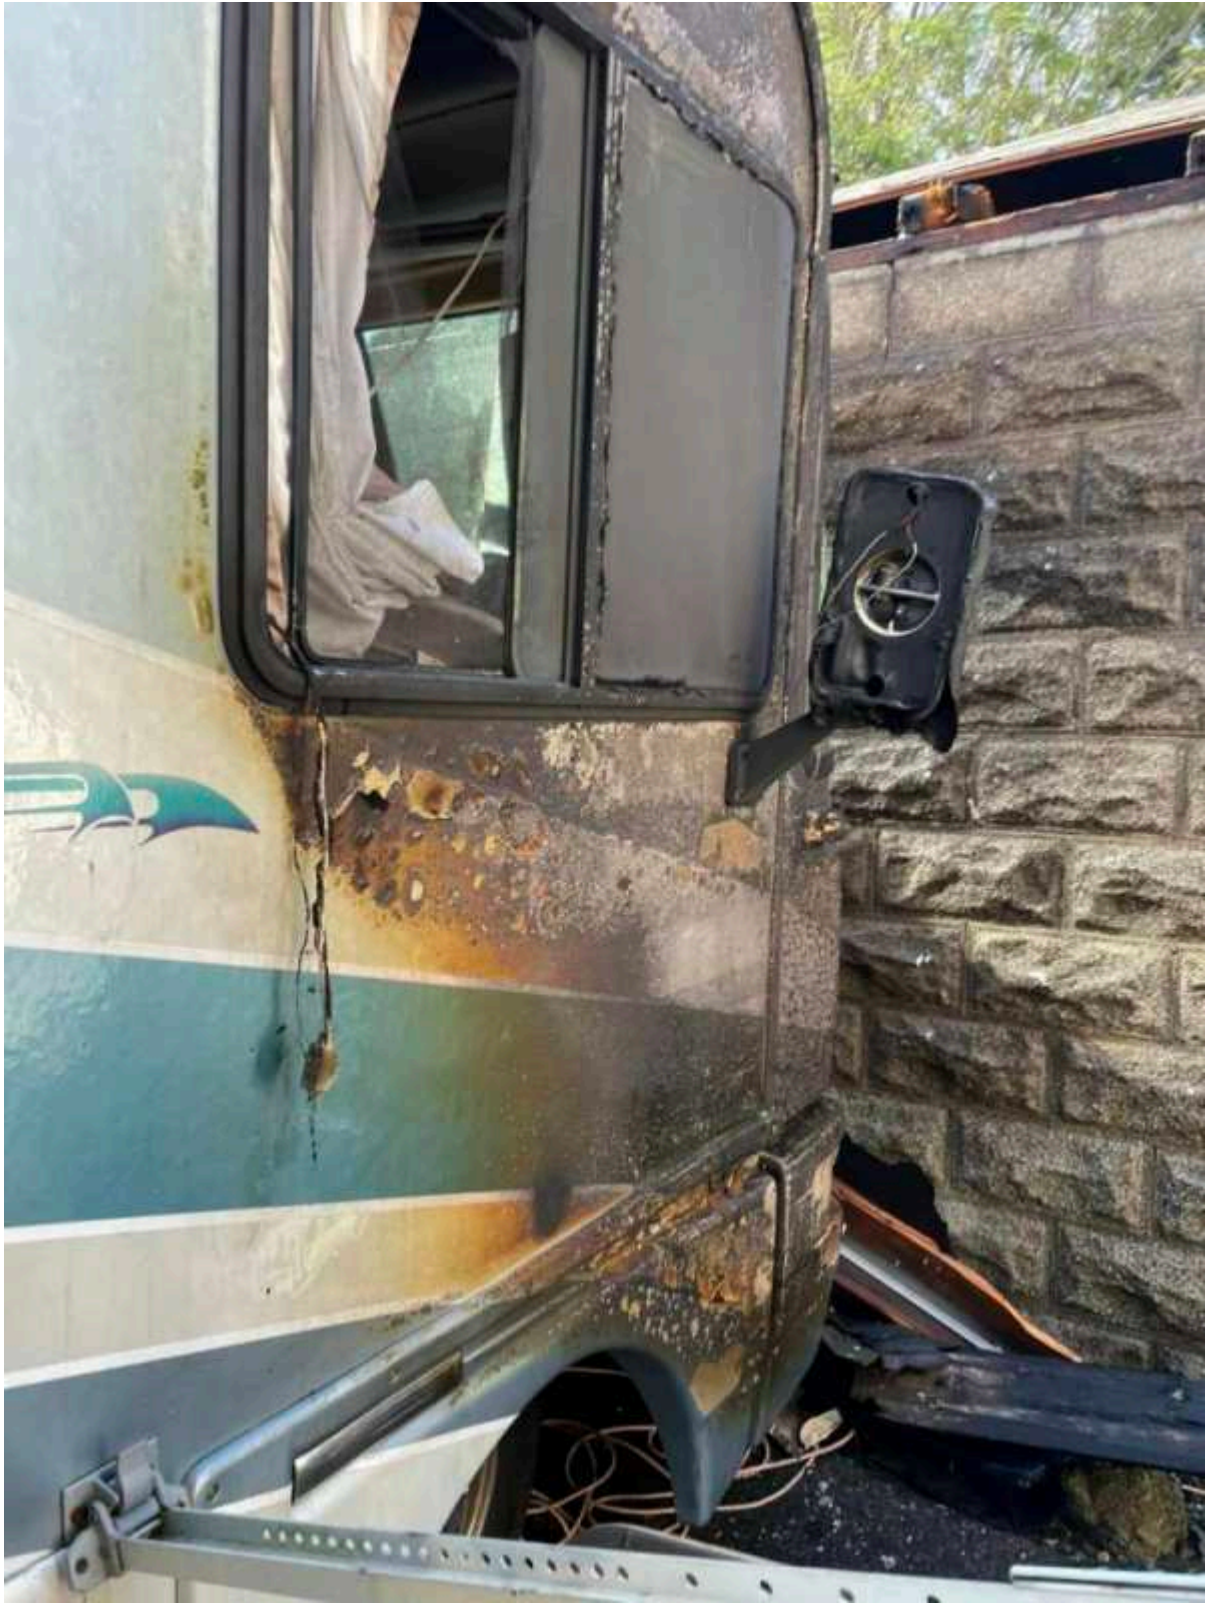

“This past Saturday at 3:46pm, 911 calls were received reporting an exterior fire at 233 Mt. Pleasant Street which had spread from a propane gas grill to a nearby motor home and exposed garage.

The fire was quickly extinguished with one hose line. The garage roof was opened to check for fire extension. A resident sustained a minor burn to his hand and was evaluated on scene by NBEMS Paramedics.

The fire was investigated by the Nbfd Fire Investigation Unit and determined to be accidental.”-New Bedford Fire Department.
