

New Bedford native, Miss Massachusetts High School London Brum makes appeal for public help in “Walk For Hunger”

London Brum is a New Bedford native who attended Bishop Stang High School. She competed in Boston and won the Miss 2021 Massachusetts High America contest. She makes appearances and does community service around New Bedford and throughout Massachusetts.

“Help Me Feed Kids and Families During this Crisis and Beyond!

I’ve joined Project Bread’s The Walk for Hunger to help get COVID-19 food relief to kids and families across Massachusetts.

No one should go without a meal, yet Project Bread estimates that 1 in 6 households and 1 in 5 households with children across the Commonwealth are facing hunger right now.

With so many struggling during this challenging time, no one should worry about where their next meal will come from or if they’ll able to feed their children.

Will you join my effort to help the unprecedented number of people who can’t afford enough to eat due to the COVID-19 pandemic?

I created this fundraiser to provide much-needed support to our neighbors facing food insecurity and hunger right now, and

I'm asking you to join me in my cause.

Visit the page here and let's ensure kids and families have food on the table during this crisis and beyond!

You can start your own fundraiser or learn more at projectbread.org/walk."

You can follow Miss Brum's Facebook here.

London Brum Facebook photo.