

New Bedford Police give Halloween “Trick or Treating” safety tips in fun video

The New Bedford Police Department want to make sure residents are having a fun and safe time while trick or treating this Halloween! Assistant Deputy Chief Scott Corolla and Detective McGruff made a fun video detailing some safety tips you should keep in mind before heading out to trick or treat.

The video was filmed by New Bedford Cable Access and you can watch it below. And don't forget, don't eat any candy with the wrapper already open!
