

New Bedford Police Department launches active investigation after recent stabbing incident

“ACTIVE INVESTIGATION:

The New Bedford Police Department is currently seeking the whereabouts of Kassandra Martinez-Fernandez, 27, 111 Harwich St., in relation to a stabbing incident on June 9 that is circulating via video on social media.

Others involved in the incident have been identified and police are continuing this active investigation.”-New Bedford Police Department.

You can view the stabbing incident here.