

New Bedford Police respond to Pleasant Street baseball bat assault

At approximately, 11:50pm on December 31, the New Bedford Police Department received a report of a man that was attacked with a baseball bat.

New Bedford Police and EMS, responded to 1332 Pleasant St. in the city's west end to find an injured man who said an unknown male had struck him over the head with a baseball bat. His injuries were described as non-life threatening.

Neither the victim's name nor that of the alleged attacker has been released. This is a developing story and we'll release more details as they come available.