

New Bedford police searching for suspects in car break in and illegal credit card use

The New Bedford Police Department is looking to speak with these two males regarding a car break that took place Wednesday in the area of Chestnut and Mill Streets. A pocketbook was stolen with personal identification and credit cards. One of which was used at a local business.

Anyone with information on their identity is asked to contact Detective Paul Fonseca at 508-991-6300 ext. 79507 or leave an anonymous tip at 508-961-4584.