

New Hampshire State police cite overloaded vehicle

The New Hampshire State Police stopped this vehicle and posted this message to Facebook:

“To elaborate on the photo that was posted earlier, driving with items attached/strapped to your vehicle can be extremely dangerous for you and those driving nearby. These objects can obstruct your view or even worse become unsecured and cause an accident. Please keep our roadways safe!”