

OdiePalooza September 10th

ODIES Place Animal Rescue Will Be Hosting a huge family day event called Odie Palooza September 10th 2016.

ODIES Place Animal rescue has been observed to take a significant role in giving human treatment to the “inhuman” that don’t have the safety and the comfort of a roof over the heads. The objective of this organization is to make living comfortable for the homeless cats and dogs or for those pets that had been left on the street by its owners. This organization is instrumental in giving a rehab to these helpless animals and provides them the necessary life support that will make their life comfortable. ODIES Place Animal rescue has been putting sincere efforts to reach out to the widest count of homeless animals and provide them the necessary support of living.

In order to aware people of its appreciable endeavors and to generate the necessary fund, this organization will host its First Annual Odie Palooza Event. Odie Palooza will be a giant family day event that will feature over 35 vendors including other animal rescues as well as several kid activities event. World renowned Knocker Ball game will also be featured at this amazing event.

This event is scheduled to hold at the Simcock Farm in Swansea, MA. The proceeds from the show will be completely spent to support the homeless animals and to offer loving support and care to a larger count of homeless animals.

“This event will not only be an extensive session of entertainment but, it will provide a wonderful chance to make some direct and indirect contribution towards an act of humanity” We will be featuring Live Music, magicians, face painters food vendors and so much more, stated the spokesperson.
