

Rochester Police dispatched to recycling center after employee finds deceased baby

“On Thursday morning at approximately 10:40 AM, Rochester dispatch received a 911 call from the Harvey Waste recycling facility on Cranberry Highway in Rochester.

The caller reported that employees had found what appeared to be the body of a human baby in the recycling products. All processing was stopped, and the Rochester Police began investigating.

Currently, no further information is available as the Rochester Police, State Police, and the Medical Examiner’s Office continue investigating.”-Rochester Police Department.

In May, a deceased baby was found in the same facility. You can read that story here.
