

Sunrise Bakery Is Officially For Sale

Rumors have been circulating for a couple of weeks regarding the longtime bakery and seemed to be confirmed after a post we shared a few days ago, but it wasn't until today that the iconic eatery confirmed the information with the following post on their Facebook page.

SUNRISE

BAKERY &
COFFEE SHOP

To All Our Valued Customers,

We know there is a lot of talk and rumors going around.

We have made the business decision...to sell.

At this time we are the owners.

We are NOT CLOSING

There will be changes and we will keep you informed.

We Thank You for your continued support and loyalty. We are privileged to serve you and look forward to continue seeing you all.

THE AMARAL FAMILY AND TEAM

506 Bolton Street • New Bedford, MA 02740 • Telephone 508-997-6570

While the bakery is not closing its definitely being sold and there is a potential buyer already. Will the recipes be the same? Will the new owners respect their legacy? We sure hope so! Running a restaurant is grueling, running it for 40+ years? Exhausting. We wish the family well, enjoy your retirement, you have certainly earned it.
