

The Fishermen Club Presents a night of Dinner, Magic, & Dancing

*Dining, dancing, and illusions by a pioneer in illusion: Lyn

Tired of the same ol, same ol? Trying to find something different to do for a change? How does dining on mouth watering food, world class entertainment and dancing the night away sound? Well, you won't need your imagination, because The Fishermen Club will be hosting a night of just that!

Bring your appetite because the United Fishermen Club is one of the area's best kept secret's when it comes to both authentic Portuguese and Portuguese-American cuisine. Feijao Verde, bebras, jaoquizeiros, goat stew, kale soup, clam chowder, half a roasted chicken, boiled dinner and more. In addition, they offer a wide variety of Greek, Mediterranean and Seafood selections to choose from. On this night, you'll get to choice between two delicious offerings. You can check out mouth-watering images here.

The United Fishermen Club is always trying to bring top entertainment, both local and beyond. For this special night the famous, master illusionist Lyn Dillies will wow everyone with illusions that will trick your eyes and your brain. You'll believe be rubbing your eyes in disbelief as she entertains the crowd with her award winning show.

Bring your dancing shoes, because after the dinner and magic, DJGP aka Greg Petitpas will be spinning the hits all night long as you tear the carpet up. He'll be playing everyone's favorite hits until closing. For tickets call Derek at 774-627-6324 or stop by the United Fishermen Club.
