

Two people injured, pets killed in Fairhaven house fire

There was a major house fire on 17 Nancy Street in Fairhaven Monday night around 10:30pm. The fire started in the basement while the home owner was handling propane gas. Two people suffered burns and a cat, dog and dozens of pigeons were killed. Fairhaven fire fighters spent two hours fighting the fire with two fire fighters suffered minor injuries.

Video by Carlos Pimentel Felix.