

United Kingdom offshore wind trade delegates visit New Bedford

“Great visit with a United Kingdom offshore wind trade delegation, at the New Bedford Marine Commerce Terminal.

Speaking to reps from 15 companies from North England and Wales, Mayor Jon Mitchell emphasized the City’s wealth of maritime expertise and ready-to-go resources:

“Knowing what you need and making sure you get what you need is something we see as our responsibility,” he said. Thanks to Massachusetts Clean Energy Center and The New Bedford Ocean Cluster for facilitating, and to the British Consulate and all delegation members for such a collaborative afternoon.” -City of New Bedford.
