

Violent career criminal wanted for allegedly assaulting pregnant woman

MATTHEW VINCENT JULIAN is wanted on several outstanding warrants for violent crimes by the Yarmouth Police Department.

JULIAN is a convicted violent Felon and has a wide ranging criminal record with 41 prior criminal charges on his adult record in Massachusetts.

On Friday, November 2, 2018 at 10:30PM, JULIAN allegedly attacked a pregnant woman known to him at a home on Long Pond Drive in South Yarmouth. Yarmouth Police Officers responded and assisted the victim. The suspect had fled and could not be located. The Yarmouth Police Department obtained an Arrest Warrant and a Protective Order, contacted the Middleboro Police Department where Julian is well known, and continued to search for the suspect.

On Saturday, November 3, 2018 at 9PM, the Yarmouth Police Department tracked down and located the suspect hiding in a basement at a home on Webbers Path in West Yarmouth. The suspect was taken in to custody and held at Yarmouth Police Department Headquarters.

With his long and violent record and the new charge of attacking a pregnant woman, the Civilian Bail Commissioner set the bail at $540. The suspect paid the bail and was released promising to be in the Barnstable District Court for his arraignment on Monday morning.

The suspect did not show up for court and has since contacted the victim and violated the Protective Order.
