

Watertown Police arrest man who allegedly stole cash from high school hockey players

“On Sunday, February 5, 2023, at approximately 6:50 pm, while at the John A. Ryan Skating Arena, this the man pictured allegedly entered a locker room while an ice hockey game was being played and stole an undisclosed amount of cash from game participants.

The teams playing at the date/time of this incident were Watertown High School vs Arlington Catholic High School and Bridgewater-Raynham High School vs Newton South High School.

The investigation is still ongoing.” -Watertown Police Department.