

Your Theatre announces Season Sponsor for Season 70

Your Theatre, Inc. most gratefully announces that BankFive will be its season sponsor for the fifth consecutive year.

Andrea Rodrigues, Vice President/Marketing Manager said, "BankFive is proud to support Your Theatre which has been entertaining our South Coast Community for over sixty-nine years. It's a pleasure to see Your Theatre thrive and offer great productions to our local citizens. We look forward to the next season of successful community theatre."

Entering its 70th continuous season of quality affordable theater in the South Coast region, Your Theatre will offer five major productions in the 2016-2017 season. This Celebratory Season will open in September with the comedy California Suite by Neil Simon. In November watch for a deliciously witty screwball comedy, Born Yesterday by Garson Kanin.

In January 2017, the new year begins with Never the Sinner quite the sophisticated examination of criminality by John Logan. In March, you will see smart comic lunacy in The House of Blue Leaves by John Guare. The 70th season will conclude in May with What the Butler Saw by Joe Orton, it combines manic farce with non-stop social commentary.

One of Massachusetts' top regional banks, BankFive's 15 locations provide products and services designed to meet the financial needs of those who live and work in the area. The generous support of BankFive is critical to the continued strength of YTI and community theatre in the South Coast area.
